

Card name: Oubliette

Mana Cost: [®]

Types: Enchantment

Card Text: When Oubliette comes into play, remove target creature and all Auras attached to it from the When Oubliette leaves play, return the removed card to play under its owner's control tapped with the new target creature and all Auras attached to it from the control tapped with the new target creature and all Auras attached to it from the control tapped with the new target creature and all Auras attached to it from the control tapped with the new target creature and all Auras attached to it from the control tapped with the new target creature and all Auras attached to it from the control tapped with the new target creature and all Auras attached to it from the control tapped with the new target creature and all Auras attached to it from the control tapped with the new target creature and all Auras attached to it from the control tapped with the new target creature and all Auras attached to it from the control tapped with the new target creature and all Auras attached to it from the control tapped with the new target creature and all Auras attached to it from the control tapped with the new target creature and all Auras attached to it from the control tapped with the new target creature and all Auras attached to it from the control tapped with the new target creature and target cre

Expansion hts

Rarity: Common